1. Although the Hai Po (海波) singing troupe gives performances in various large cities, it is secretly directed by the Chinese Communists in Burma and it is actually a cover under which they collect intelligence information and carry out Communist propaganda. On 13 August CH'EN Tzu-ch'iu (陳自秋), deputy in charge of the troupe, headed a group of four females, including two named LU Chen-ni (林珍妮) and LU Sen (呂森), who tried to enter China illegally. When they had gone 105 miles, they were detained at the Burmese customs barrier and were sent to Lashio for questioning.
2. At the present time the Chinese Communist are actively trying to persuade the overseas Chinese students in Burma to receive training so that they can be used at some future date when the Chinese Communists invade Burma. Students registered with the Chinese Communist embassy in Burma who have expressed willingness to return to China, number 340. In order to prevent the return of such unauthorized persons to China, the Burmese government has sent special agents to superintend the Chinese Communist embassy in Rangoon. All suspicious persons will be arrested.
3. Despite safeguards, however, a large number of overseas students have been infiltrated into China.
